

PAINSWICK CHRONICLE
LIST OF ARTICLES BY VOLUME

| Title                                                                      | Author             | Pages |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|-------|
| Number 1, 1997                                                      |                    |       |
| The Hyetts and Dickinsons of Painswick                                     | Lord Dickinson     | 3     |
| Origin of the Name of Painswick                                            | John Bailey        | 14    |
| The Postal History of the Mail Service in Painswick                        | Trevor Radway      | 17    |
| 1838 Royal Commission on Hand Loom Weavers in Gloucestershire (Excerpt) -- |                    | 23    |
| Childhood Reminiscences of Painswick                                       | Frances F. Gardner | 25    |
| Painswick Friends Meeting House and Dell Burial Ground                     | Roland Pepper      | 31    |
| Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee in 1897                                   | John Bailey        | 35    |
| Gyde House                                                                 | Fred Semark        | 39    |
| Jottings                                                                   | --                 | 47    |
| Society Meetings in 1996                                                   | Gwen Welch         | 48    |
| Number 2, 1998                                                  |                    |       |
| Painswick Roads, Ancient and Modern                                        | Peter Minall       | 3     |
| Jottings                                                                   | --                 | 16    |
| Mary Roberts, the Beautiful Duchess                                        | Elisabeth Skinner  | 17    |
| A Double Centenary                                                         | John Bailey        | 24    |
| The Twinings of Painswick                                                  | --                 | 30    |
| A Commemorative Stamp                                                      | --                 | 32    |
| More Jottings                                                              | --                 | 33    |
| My Paradise and its Inhabitants                                            | Doreen Hartley     | 34    |
| Bethell Family of Painswick                                                | Dr David Bethel    | 40    |
| A House 'in Stamages Lane'                                                 | Tony Bradley       | 48    |
| Society Meetings in 1997                                                   | Gwen Welch         | 54    |
| Number 3, 1999                                                  |                    |       |
| W H Hyett FRS, of Painswick, Man of Many Parts                             | Peter Walmsley     | 3     |
| Painswick Fifty Years Ago                                                  | A J Gwinnett       | 14    |
| Painswick Milestone Project                                                | Peter Minall       | 18    |
| Jottings                                                                   | --                 | 22    |
| The Bells of St. Mary's                                                    | Derek Hodges       | 23    |
| Where was Saxon Painswick                                                  | Cedric Nielsen     | 30    |
| The Twining Family in Painswick and Sheepscombe: Some Snippets             | Elisabeth Skinner  | 35    |
| More Jottings                                                              | --                 | 39    |
| A History of Medical Practice in Painswick                                 | Dr James Hoyland   | 40    |
| Poem William Henry Hyett                                                   |                    | 49    |
| Society Meetings in 1998                                                   | Gwen Welch         | 50    |

Number 4, 2000

|                                                                                 |                       |    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|----|
| Chest Tombs and Tea Caddies                                                     | Roy Truman            | 3  |
| Schoolboy Memories of Painswick Beacon, 8th May 1945                            | John E Mercer         | 12 |
| Painswick Fifty Years Ago                                                       | A J Gwinnett          | 13 |
| Three Coins Found at Highfold Farm, Painswick                                   | Cedric Nielsen        | 16 |
| Horne's Garage, 1942-1950                                                       | Doreen Hartley        | 20 |
| Charles Baker and Painswick                                                     | Hywel James           | 25 |
| Painswick Post Office in 1960                                                   | Trevor Radway         | 33 |
| Jottings                                                                        | --                    | 36 |
| Sir William Kingston, Constable of the Tower of Londonand Lord of the Manor | Russel Howes          | 37 |
| Where was Saxon Painswick? - A Reply                                            | Mark Bowden           | 44 |
| Correspondence                                                                  | Colin Maclaurin-Jones | 46 |
| Correspondence                                                                  | Georgina MacKenzie    | 48 |
| Correspondence                                                                  | James Hoyland         | 49 |
| Society Meetings in 1999                                                        | Gwen Welch            | 50 |

Number 5, 2001

|                                                                                |                    |    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|----|
| Gerald Finzi. The Painswick Connection                                         | Dr James Hoyland   | 3  |
| Education and Schools in Painswick during the 18th,19th and 20th Centuries | Derek Hodges       | 6  |
| One Hundred Years Ago - The Mudrakers                                          | --                 | 12 |
| The Ladies of Ebworth                                                          | Elisabeth Skinner  | 14 |
| Painswick Fifty Years Ago                                                      | A J Gwinnett       | 21 |
| Correspondence                                                                 | Georgina MacKenzie | 48 |
| Correspondence                                                                 | James Hoyland      | 49 |
| Society Meetings in 1999                                                       | Gwen Welch         | 50 |

Number 6, 2002

|                                                              |                                      |    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|----|
| Painswick's Wool Industry                                    | Carol Maxwell                        | 3  |
| Three Childhood Recollections Spanning 100 Years             | --                                   | 13 |
| Thomas Claridge                                              | Angus Buchanan                       | 16 |
| Royal Charter, 1253                                          | John Bailey                          | 20 |
| The Gloucester Cattle of Painswick                           | Cedric Nielsen andPaul Griffiths | 23 |
| Cud Hill                                                     | Reg Hargrave                         | 26 |
| Culinary Jottings                                            | --                                   | 32 |
| Child Emigration to Canada                                   | John Bailey                          | 33 |
| A Bridle Boss Found at the Park                              | Cedric Nielsen                       | 44 |
| Painswick Entry from 'A Topographical Dictionary of England' | --                                   | 45 |
| Seeking Phyllis Barron                                       | Les Baron                            | 48 |
| Society Meetings in 2001                                     | Gwen Welch                           | 50 |

Number 7, 2004

|                                                                                      |                                      |    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|----|
| The Pearsons and Churn Cotswold Tweeds                                               | John Bailey                          | 3  |
| Br Michael's Story - A life of Devoted Service                                       | Carol Maxwell                        | 7  |
| Edge Post Office                                                                     | Rosemary Levett andSally Hallard | 16 |
| Postwoman of the Cotswolds                                                           | K G Bird                             | 18 |
| 180 Million Years of Painswick                                                       | Geology Janet Jenkins                | 20 |
| Jottings                                                                             | --                                   | 31 |
| My Painswick Upbringing                                                              | John Thynne-Russell                  | 32 |
| Two Roman Coins Found Inside Kimsbury Hillfort                                       | Cedric Nielsen                       | 36 |
| Church Pews - An introduction                                                        | Carol Maxwell                        | 38 |
| Blakewell Farmhouse, Cross House and a Gallery Pew ofPainswick Church c1657-1707 | --                                   | 40 |
| The House that Daniel Spring Built                                                   | Peter M Rowe                         | 42 |
| A Few of My Memories of the Second World Warin Painswick                         | Pauline Berry                        | 48 |
| Society Events in 2002                                                               | Gwen Welch                           | 54 |

Number 8, 2005

|                                                                |                  |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|----|
| C W 'Willie' Orr. The Unknown Songwriter                       | Dr James Hoyland | 3  |
| Kimsbury Hillfort and the Iron Age on the Cotswold Edge        | Mark Bowden      | 8  |
| The Coxes of Damsell's and Oliver's Mills Painswick            | Simon Cassels    | 14 |
| The Llanthony Connection                                       | Cedric Nielsen   | 22 |
| Jottings                                                       | --               | 25 |
| Rev Cornelius Winter 1742-1808                                 | John Bailey      | 26 |
| The History of Canton House                                    | Hywel James      | 35 |
| Handblock Textile Printers: Phyllis Barron and Dorothy Larcher | Carol Maxwell    | 41 |
| Society Events in 2003 and 2004                                | Gwen Welch       | 51 |

Number 9, 2006

|                                              |                                    |    |
|----------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|----|
| Drama in Painswick ... an Incomplete History | Andrew Leach                       | 3  |
| A Walk around Stroudend Tithing              | Carolyn Luke                       | 12 |
| Jottings                                     | --                                 | 21 |
| 100 Years of Telephones in Painswick         | Peter M Rowe                       | 22 |
| John Wilfred Seddon - Pioneer Aviator        | John Bailey                        | 26 |
| A Limestone Sphere                           | Cedric Nielsen andCarolyn Luke | 37 |
| The Painswick Book Society                   | Carol Maxwell                      | 40 |
| Painswick Gloucestershire 1791               | --                                 | 52 |
| Society Events in 2005                       | Gwen Welch                         | 53 |
| The Llanthony Connection - References        | Cedric Nielsen                     | 56 |

Number 10, 2007

|                                     |                                 |    |
|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------|----|
| Painswick Rococo Garden             | Richard Dickinson and Paul Moir | 3  |
| Jottings                            | --                              | 11 |
| Pin Making in Painswick             | John Bailey                     | 12 |
| My Early Life at The Edge           | Rosie Smith                     | 24 |
| Three Fields                        | Hywel James                     | 28 |
| More Jottings                       | --                              | 37 |
| The Poor of Painswick               | Carol Maxwell                   | 38 |
| Clock and Watch Making in Painswick | Peter Jackson                   | 49 |
| Society Events in 2006              | Gwen Welch                      | 53 |

Number 11, 2008

|                                                        |                   |    |
|--------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|----|
| Willoughby, Lord Dickinson KBE PC                      | Richard Dickinson | 3  |
| Patriotism and Sacrifice - Painswick and The Great War | Carol Maxwell     | 10 |
| My Reminiscences of Painswick Amateur Operatic Society | Pauline Bailey    | 24 |
| Jottings                                               | --                | 33 |
| Painswick's War Memorials                              | Carol Maxwell     | 34 |
| The Coles and the Reeds at Painswick Mill              | Hywel James       | 39 |
| Painswick Sanatorium                                   | Peter Jackson     | 49 |
| Society Events in 2007                                 | Gwen Welch        | 54 |

Number 12, 2009

|                                                              |                   |    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|----|
| Sir Francis Hyett                                            | Richard Dickinson | 3  |
| Painswick Stocks                                             | Mark Bowden       | 12 |
| Sir Alexander Ball                                           | Peter Jackson     | 16 |
| Jottings                                                     | --                | 18 |
| Painswick 1935-1945: profile of a rural community in wartime | Carol Maxwell     | 19 |
| More Jottings                                                | --                | 33 |
| James Atkins - Botanist and Horticulturalist                 | John Bailey       | 34 |
| Early Public Transport in Painswick                          | Alan Fielder      | 40 |
| Painswick Sanatorium - An addendum                           | Peter Jackson     | 52 |
| A Correction                                                 | Trevor Radway     | 53 |
| Society Events in 2008                                       | Gwen Welch        | 54 |

Number 13, 2010

|                                                 |                  |    |
|-------------------------------------------------|------------------|----|
| Coombe House, Edge - From Manor to Milking Shed | Carolyn Luke     | 3  |
| Painswick Baptist Chapel                        | Hywel James      | 12 |
| Jottings                                        | --               | 21 |
| The Gyde Family                                 | Graham Gyde      | 22 |
| The Nurse's House                               | Carol Maxwell    | 29 |
| Agriculture in Edge                             | Aileen Griffiths | 41 |
| Society Events in 2009                          | Gwen Welch       | 49 |

Number 14, 2011

|                                                                |                     |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------|----|
| Painswick Gas Company                                          | Alan Fielder        | 3  |
| Memories of Yesteryear                                         | Reg Daniels         | 11 |
| Jottings                                                       | --                  | 23 |
| Mediaeval Painswick: the changing town                         | Mark Bowden         | 24 |
| Belgian Refugees Painswick District Committee 1914             | Carol Maxwell       | 28 |
| Painswick's Poets and Writers. The sublime to the 'cor blimey' | Carol Maxwell       | 30 |
| 350 Years of the Independent Chapel, Painswick                 | Jim Hodges (edited) | 38 |
| Jottings -- 51                                                 |                     |    |
| Correspondence                                                 | --                  | 52 |
| Society Events in 2010                                         | Gwen Welch          | 53 |

Number 15, 2012

|                                                                                  |                |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|----|
| The History of Painswick Almshouses                                              | Ann Daniels    | 3  |
| Mills and Wills: A Twining Inheritance in Painswick                              | John Twining   | 9  |
| The Washbrook Revisited: A walk through the industrialpast of a rural valley | Carolyn Luke 2 | 0  |
| Rose Tranter's Memories - Transport                                              | Rose Tranter   | 25 |
| 1851 - Painswick at a Crossroad                                                  | Carol Maxwell  | 29 |
| Greenhouse Lane and the Adjacent Fields                                          | Mark Bowden    | 40 |
| Jottings                                                                         | --             | 42 |
| The Worcestershire Sauce Connection                                              | Alan Fielder   | 43 |
| Society Events in 2011                                                           | Gwen Welch     | 49 |

Number 16, 2013

|                                                      |               |    |
|------------------------------------------------------|---------------|----|
| Painswick Fire Service                               | Alan Fielder  | 3  |
| Alfred Gyde                                          | Graham Gyde   | 16 |
| A Miscellany of Documents                            | Peter Jackson | 21 |
| Jottings                                             | --            | 25 |
| Skinner's Mill - a thousand years and still counting | Carol Maxwell | 26 |
| Rose Tranter's Memories - Education                  | Rose Tranter  | 37 |
| Gyde Almshouses (part ii)                            | Ann Daniels   | 41 |
| Society Events in 2012                               | Gwen Welch    | 49 |

Number 17, 2014

|                                                                |                |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|----|
| Stonehenge - The Painswick Connection                          | Mark Bowden    | 3  |
| Before the Memorial Gardens                                    | Alan Fielder   | 6  |
| Impressions of Lovedays Mill                                   | Salvadore Oria | 16 |
| Frederick and Edwin Gyde                                       | Graham Gyde    | 18 |
| Valour to Vanity - Painswick's Coats of Arms                   | Carol Maxwell  | 24 |
| Jottings                                                       | --             | 31 |
| St Mary's Home                                                 | Peter Jackson  | 32 |
| Three Weeks of Wildness and Barbarity in the Painswick of 1916 | Dorothy Quin   | 41 |
| Painswick Hauntings                                            | Kenneth Cook   | 47 |
| Society Events in 2013                                         | Gwen Welch     | 49 |

Number 18, 2015

|                                                                            |               |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|----|
| Painswick Public Baths                                                     | Alan Fielder  | 3  |
| A Glimpse into the History of Policing in the Painswick Area               | Harold Clark  | 8  |
| Jottings                                                                   | --            | 20 |
| Fit for the Muster                                                         | Carol Maxwell | 21 |
| Keeping witches at bay – Apotropaic Marks around the Painswick Area        | Peter Jackson | 32 |
| The Railway that never was: The Painswick Light Railway                    | Graham Gyde   | 38 |
| Three Weeks of Wildness and Barbarity in thePainswick of 1916 (Part 2) | Dorothy Quin  | 42 |
| Society meetings in 2014                                                   | Gwen Welch    | 49 |

Number 19, 2016

|                                                                             |               |    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|----|
| Some Early Memories of Joan Wood transcribed                                | Harold Clark  | 3  |
| A Glimpse into the History of Policing in the Painswick Area -An update | Harold Clark  | 13 |
| Painswicks Criminal Past                                                    | Carol Maxwell | 15 |
| Jottings                                                                    | ~~            | 31 |
| The Town Hall Fire                                                          | Alan Fielder  | 32 |
| Temperance Society Certificate                                              | ~~            | 35 |
| Painswick Allotments John Loosley 36                                        |               |    |
| Three Weeks of Wildness and Barbarity in thePainswick of 1916 (Part 3)  | Dorothy Quin  | 40 |
| Society meetings in 2015                                                    |               | 49 |

Number 20 2017

|                                                                      |                  |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|----|
| A brief and speculative history of Kings Mill House, Painswick       | Henrietta Podd   | 3  |
| Institutes in Painswick - education, entertainment and ...abstinence | Carol Maxwell    | 10 |
| Jottings                                                             | ~~               | 21 |
| Arthur Meeze and the Meeze Family in Painswick                       | Alastair Jollans | 22 |
| House of Horrors                                                     |                  | 32 |
| More Jottings                                                        | ~~               | 34 |
| Notes on water supply in the parish of Painswick                     | Alan Fielder     | 35 |
| The Canadian Expeditionary Force, 1914-1918                          | Graham Gyde      | 46 |
| Society meetings in 2016                                             |                  | 49 |

Number 21 2018

|                                                                               |                    |    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|----|
| Domesday Book 1086 “Wyke had a Priest”                                        | Derek Hodges       | 3  |
| An account of the Painswick Banner                                            | Polyphemus Pointer | 11 |
| Archaeological survey and excavationat Sheepscombe, 2013-15: Wight’s Mill | Mark Bowden        | 14 |
| Thomas Dyer Edwardes and Family                                               | Alan Fielder       | 19 |
| Jottings                                                                      | ~~                 | 26 |
| Those infectious little cripples -Painswick’s Alexandra Hospital          | Carol Maxwell      | 27 |

|                                                              |                  |    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|----|
| Memories of Painswick in the 1930s/40s                       | Pat Harper &     |    |
| Joyce Perkins née Strange                                    | Harold Clark     | 39 |
| Cruck beams at The Gables                                    | Peter Jackson    | 48 |
| Society meetings in 2017                                     |                  | 54 |
| Number 22 2019                                    |                  |    |
| Domesday 1066 - "Wyke had a priest" (Part 2)                 | Derek Hodges     | 3  |
| Painswick Shows                                              | Peter Jackson    | 8  |
| Eric Gill and Painswick                                      | James Pentney    | 15 |
| Painswick 1851 to 1911- an exploration of the census returns | Carol Maxwell    | 17 |
| The ups and downs of Painswick Billiards Club                | Trevor Radway    | 32 |
| The Recreation Ground                                        | Richard Harris & |    |
|                                                              | Alan Fielder     | 36 |
| Memories of Jean Ryland                                      | Pat Harper &     |    |
|                                                              | Harold Clark 4   | 4  |
| Society meetings in 2018                                     |                  | 49 |
| Number 23 2020                                    |                  |    |
| The History of Bellringing in Painswick                      |                  |    |
| (Part 1) The first two hundred years                         | Alastair Jollans | 3  |
| Habitual Drunkards Retreat at Sheepscombe House              | Graham Gyde      | 12 |
| Painswick Charities                                          | Carol Maxwell    | 16 |
| Jottings                                                     | ~~               | 27 |
| The History of the Falcon Bowling Club and its Green         | Harold Clarke    | 28 |
| Recollections of Painswick (Characters)                      | Rose Tranter     | 36 |
| The Story of the A46 Road from Stroud to Cheltenham          | Alan Fielder     | 40 |
| Society Meetings in 2019                                     |                  | 50 |
| Number 24 2021                                    |                  |    |
| The History of Bellringing in Painswick                      |                  |    |
| (Part 2) The next one hundred years (1886-1986)              | Alastair Jollans | 3  |
| Frank Colin Gyde                                             | Graham Gyde      | 14 |
| Old Roads of Painswick                                       | Hywel James      | 17 |
| Jottings                                                     | ~~               | 24 |
| The Painswick Advowson - A very troubled history             | Carol Maxwell    | 25 |
| The Eagle, Pitchcombe                                        | Michael James    | 33 |
| In search of lost times                                      | Carol Butler &   |    |
|                                                              | Henrietta Podd   | 36 |
| From Painswick Annual Register 1890-1883 June 10 (Sunday)    | Francis Hyett    | 42 |
| The British Chess Company                                    | Alan Fielder     | 44 |
| Society Meetings in 2020                                     |                  | 48 |

Number 25 2022

|                                                 |                                 |    |
|-------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|----|
| The Battle for Edwin Gyde's Will                | Graham Gyde                     | 3  |
| Painswick Coins and Tokens                      | Al Jollans                      | 7  |
| The Painswick Hoard                             | Al Jollans                      | 9  |
| Seaman - Brilliance to Notoriety in one Family  | Carol Maxwell                   | 13 |
| Jottings                                        | ~~                              | 19 |
| A History of Painswick's Public Houses (part 1) | Alan Fielder &Carol Maxwell | 20 |
| Review of my Life - Edward Caruthers Little     | Ed. David Little                | 30 |
| The Hangman's Acre - from Cotswold Life 1991    |                                 | 42 |
| Painswick and the Anarchy                       | James Pentney                   | 43 |
| Society Meetings October 2021 to June 2022      |                                 | 48 |

Number 26 2023

|                                                      |                              |    |
|------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------|----|
| J W Goddard - Probably the oldest family run garage? | Robert &Karen Goddard    | 3  |
| Memories of Life in Paradise                         | Mary Luker &Harold Clark | 8  |
| Painswick in 1921 - what does the census reveal      | Carol Maxwell                | 15 |
| Jottings                                             | ~~                           | 29 |
| A family from Vicarage Street                        | Al Jollans                   | 30 |
| Gyde House, 1933: A year of decision                 | Graham Gyde                  | 36 |
| A History of Painswick's Public Houses (part 2)      | Alan Fielder                 | 40 |
| Society Meetings - September 2022 to June 2023       |                              | 50 |

Number 27 2024

|                                                                                                          |                 |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|----|
| The Fryer family of Painswick, 1886-2018 - Part 1 William and Sarahtheir children and what they did. | Jonathan Briggs | 3  |
| The Plantation                                                                                           | Ann Daniels     | 13 |
| The History of Painswick Manorand its many Powerful Lords                                            | Carol Maxwell   | 16 |
| Moses Pullen (1821-1896)                                                                                 | Graham Gyde     | 30 |
| Jottings                                                                                                 | ~~              | 34 |
| Prinknash Abbey - The Old House                                                                          | Peter Jackson   | 35 |
| Charge of using threats                                                                                  |                 | 49 |
| Society Meetings September 2023 to June 2024                                                             |                 | 50 |

